

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED BY KABOB HIKING CLUB

Forty members and guests of the Kabob Hiking Club were present at the annual meeting and dedication service Sunday when the club made its annual hike to the place of organization on Stoney Mountain.

The dedication address was made by Harold Stahle, the unveiling by Milton Litch and the prayer by Albert Millar. A large boulder of native rock in which was leaded a bronze plaque bearing the following inscription: "Annually a group of people interested in God's great out-of-doors return to this spot where on October 21, 1934, the Kabo Hiking Club was founded."

The annual business meeting was held after the dedication exercises and the following new officers were elected to serve for the coming year: President, Edward Blessing; secretary, Ethel Davis, and treasurer, Catherine Rudman. During the course of the hike from Clarks Valley across Stoney Mountain to the memorial site at Rattling Run, Mr. Litch, the club historian, led the membership in visits to the Minsker homestead, one of the original settlements in the upper Dauphin County section; to Victoria Furnace, an iron production center dating from the Revolutionary period and last used in 1848 and another excursion to the Bayard homestead which has been in continuous use by the family for over 100 years. At this latter place the club was entertained by Mrs. Paschal, a granddaughter of the builder and the owner of the furnace. She recalled the old stories and displayed family relics and miniatures and a lock of General George Washington's hair which was presented to her grandmother.
